Hey Elisa,
How does tomorrow look for you?
Thanks!
Laurie

Elisa, sorry I'm only emailing you back now -- I was sick last week but am better now. I'm up for meeting re: the RFI even though it may be late. I wanted to send an email back but let me check w/my editors to see if there's anything pressing coming up. If not, I think this upcoming week would work for me.

Thanks,
Laurie

Hi Laurie

I know this is a little late, but given all of the continuing conversations about the technology selection, we thought it might be instructive if we went over the RFI submittals with you so you can understand how all of the different technologies stacked up. Let me know if you're interested and if so what works for you in terms of timing.

Thanks,
Elisa
